April 24th, 2013 from 8:30 AM to 12:00 PM CST

Located at Friendship Inc. in Fargo
801 Page Drive, Fargo ND 58103

The North Dakota Developmental Disabilities Network (State Developmental Disabilities Council, Protection and Advocacy, ND Center for Persons with Disabilities) announce a FREE training session on the essential skills for writing successful grant proposals. The training will focus primarily on aspects of the State Developmental Disabilities Council grant application process. Participants will receive instruction in the concepts and skills of grant writing. They will also work in large and small groups to develop skills for a basic proposal.

Local, regional and state agency staff, self-advocates, provider agencies, community services staff, individuals, and others interested in disability services grants should attend.

Training topics:

- ✚ Understanding the Request for Proposal
- ✚ Developing an Idea into a Fundable Application
- ✚ Skills for Writing and Editing the Proposal
- ✚ Format and Presentation Techniques that Help your Proposal
- ✚ Developing and Justifying a Budget
- ✚ Final Review Strategies Prior to Submission

PRE-REGISTER!!!

While the workshop is free, you do need to pre-register. Those who show up without registering may not be able to attend the session.
